Payment after the death of the Investor may be made to the estate or heirs and shall be subject to the laws relating to devise and descent, including laws relating to inheritance and succession taxes.

Multiple Party Certificates – If, at any one time, more than one individual has an interest in a certificate it is a multiple party certificate. Such certificates may be JOINT: all persons named on the certificate are “owners” and each has the right to the certificate. BENEFICIARY CERTIFICATES: one individual, the original “owner”, names an individual(s) or organization(s) as a Beneficiary payee who will receive any amount upon the death of the original owner. TRUST CERTIFICATES: all named Trustees are deemed “owners” although they act as fiduciaries for the beneficiaries named on the certificate. All joint certificate holders, each original owner and Beneficiary payees on a Beneficiary certificate, and all trustees and beneficiaries of a Trust certificate must be named in the certificate title.

Rights of survivorship may exist between joint owners or trustees. No right of survivorship exists between Beneficiary payees or between beneficiaries of a Trust unless stated in the certificate. Payment to a surviving owner shall be subject to the laws relating to inheritance and succession taxes. Upon the death of the last survivor all persons named on the certificate, including Beneficiary payees and trust beneficiaries, the funds remaining on investment will be paid to the estate or heirs thereof.

Fiduciary Certificates (Including Trusts) – If the Investor is a fiduciary, every person affixing his or her signature on the Term Investment Certificate Application and Agreement certifies that he or she is authorized to purchase the Term Investment Certificate. Investor also agrees to furnish documents or agreements as shall be needed or requested by MCIF to evidence his or her capacity and authority relating to the opening and maintenance of the Investment Certificate.

Failure to supply properly executed corporate resolutions, partnership agreements, or other required documents may result in MCIF refusing to honor withdrawals against the account.

Tradename – Sole Proprietorship – If Investor is a sole proprietor (sole owner) of an unincorporated business, affixing his or her signature on the Term Investment Certificate Application and Agreement certifies that he or she is fully authorized to execute the Term Investment Certificate Application and Agreement as the sole owner and to exercise the privilege incident thereto; that no other person has ownership or interest therein; and that all transactions conducted by the Investor under the tradename shall be fully binding upon the Investor as though they were conducted in the Investor's own name. Upon death of the Investor, the funds remaining will be paid to the estate or heirs entitled thereto. Payment shall be subject to the laws relating to inheritance and succession taxes.

Custodian Investment Certificate-Uniform Transfers to Minors Act – Investor may make a transfer of money to a minor (child under the age of 21) and name a custodian, to assume the responsibility of making Investments and withdrawals for the minor's use. ### The Investment Certificate

Interest Rate information – The interest rate on your Term Investment Certificate at opening will be paid until first maturity.

Interest Compounding & Crediting – Interest will be compounded and credited semi-annually according to the options you select. The options offered are determined by the term and/or the amount of the certificate. Please see the Term Investment Certificate Application and Agreement for the option you have selected.

Computing Interest – We use the daily balance method to calculate the interest on your account. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day. Interest begins to accrue on the business day you invest non-cash items (for example checks).

Minimum Purchase Balance – There is a $1,000.00 minimum investment required to open a Term Investment Certificate.

Time Requirements – Various terms are available.

Transaction Limitations – You may make withdrawals of principal from your Term Investment Certificate before maturity only if we agree at the time you request the withdrawal. You can only withdraw interest on the crediting dates. The total investment by a single investor or entity (or entities controlled by a single investor or entity) will be limited to MCIF policy to a maximum amount of $1,038,171 as of December 31, 2022. (The maximum amount is based on a formula and changes from time to time. If necessary, please contact MCIF for the current maximum investment amount.)

Early Withdrawal Penalties – A penalty may be imposed for withdrawals before maturity. The penalty we may impose will equal the loss of 90 days interest on the amount withdrawn. There are certain circumstances, such as death or incompetence of an owner or when a medically related or nursing home financial hardship has occurred, where we may not use that right.

Maturity of Term Investment Certificate – No Automatically Renewable Term – This certificate will not automatically renew at maturity. At maturity you may request reinvestment for any currently available term and interest rate if we receive written notice from you within any grace period mentioned. If we have not received your instructions by the end of any grace period mentioned your investment and any accrued interest will be returned to you. Interest will not accrue after the final maturity date. The interest rate on a reinvestment will be the same as we offer on New Term Investment Certificates, which have the same term, minimum balance and other features as the original Investment.

This Agreement is subject to all the terms and conditions stated in the Offering Circular which are incorporated herein by reference, as they may be amended from time to time. Should any conflict occur between the terms described herein and the Offering Circular the terms stated in the Offering Circular shall take precedence.
